SECTION 4: AUCA ADMISSION EXAM (ELPT+M) SCORE REPORT

AUCA offers two options for admissions tests – applicants can either take AUCA Admission Exam or submit standardized admissions test results (SAT or ACT plus Writing for Undergraduate admissions; GMAT or GRE for MBA Program, and GRE for MACAS Program).

All AUCA applicants who are non-native English speakers must document their proficiency in English by either taking the AUCA English Language Proficiency Test (ELTP) or by submitting official TOEFL or IELTS scores directly to AUCA (optional for MACAS applicants).

NOTE: Visiting / Exchange Students do not have to sit for the AUCA Admission Exam or submit SAT, ACT, GRE, or GMAT test results. AUCA English Language Proficiency Test, TOEFL, or IELTS will still be required for non-native English speaking Visiting / Exchange Students.
